HOPE25

Priest's Message

Anglican Churches Providing Hope in a Broken World

This Pentecost Sunday, the Parish of Glenelg, along with many other Anglican churches throughout Australia, is embarking on a significant journey by launching the Hope25 campaign.

Hope25 is not just a campaign; it's a collective effort. It's about empowering parishes like ours to creatively and effectively share our faith during this designated season.

Hope25 is an opportunity for sharing hope in Jesus across parishes and communities in the Anglican Church of Australia. Each parish is encouraged to undertake at least one activity that helps share this hope. The initiative emphasises local and contextual action, allowing parishes to determine the best way to engage their communities.

While specific actions are not prescribed, resources and support will be provided to help parishes effectively share their message of hope.

Hope25 will be officially launched across Australia on Pentecost Sunday, 2024 when the official Hope25 website <https://www.Hope25.com.au/> goes live. This website will provide parishes with resources and regular updates.

Hope25 will run from Easter Day (April 20) to Pentecost Sunday (June 8) in 2025, but the lead-up to this campaign is important. Parishes and dioceses are encouraged to begin praying and planning. If you would like to be involved in our Hope25 planning team or have any suggestions for events, services, or Bible studies that we can provide in the lead-up to or during this campaign, please see Andrew or Tracey.

Hope25 Official Collect

*God of Hope, you call on us to be your witnesses in this uncertain world;
by your Spirit awaken in us a true vision of your kingdom,
a greater certainty of our salvation, and a deeper dedication to your service;
that through our words and actions
the same Spirit may bring many who are lost to be found,
and for them to celebrate the hope that we can only have in Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen*

WORSHIP RESOURCES FOR TODAY

Sentence

‘A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you,’ says the Lord God; ‘I will put my spirit within you and you shall live.’

Ezekiel 36.26; 37.14

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, you sent your Holy Spirit to be the life and light of your Church: open our hearts to the riches of your grace, that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit in love, joy, and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Acts 2.1-21

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, ‘Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.’ All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, ‘What does this mean?’ But others sneered and said, ‘They are filled with new wine.’

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: ‘Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

“In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God

Psalm 104.26-36

A.P.B.A. page 331

Lord, how various are your works:

in wisdom you have made them all,
and the earth is full of your creatures.

There is the wide, immeasurable sea:

there move living things without number, great and small;

There go the ships, to and fro:

and there is that Leviathan
whom you formed to sport in the deep.

These all look to you:

to give them their food in due season.

When you give it to them, they gather it:

when you open your hand
they are satisfied with good things.

When you hide your face, they are troubled:

when you take away their breath,
they die and return to their dust.

When you send forth your spirit they are created:

and you renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord endure for ever:

may the Lord rejoice in his works.

If he look upon the earth, it shall tremble:

if he but touch the mountains, they shall smoke.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live:

I will praise my God while I have any being.

May my meditation be pleasing to him:

for my joy shall be in the Lord.

Second Reading

Romans 8.22-27

A reading from the letter to the Romans

We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labour pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen?

But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful;
and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 15.26-27; 16.4b-15

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St John

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

'I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, "Where are you going?" But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgement: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgement, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ
